

WANDERPORT
all things connected

WanderPort Develops WAN Acceleration Technology

WanderPort Networks has developed WAN acceleration technology which allows multiple dissimilar, low quality circuits to function as one seamless "Super Circuit" to the end user. This technology will be rolled across our entire Global network to all sites with a less than stellar primary internet connection. The end result will be the highest possible internet and VOIP quality to all of our customers - not just those with a fancy Fiber pipe!